Comparison of Interveners and Paraprofessionals

Intervener	Paraprofessional
◆ Works under the direction of the classroom teacher (regardless of supervisory funding source)	♦ Works under the direction of the classroom teacher
◆ Abides by district or agency policies	◆ Abides by district or agency policies
◆ Assigned to work one-to-one with a student who is deafblind to facilitate the process of intervention	 Usually works with groups of students but can work one-to-one when assigned by the teacher
♦ Must have comprehensive specialized training in deafblindness	◆ Typically does not receive disability specific training
 Has skills in deafblind intervention including communication methods, environmental access, sensory loss, deafblind instructional strategies, and how to create independence rather than dependence 	◆ Has varying levels of skills dependent on assignment, experience, and training
 Prepares materials for the one student who is deafblind with whom he/she works in coordination with the teacher 	◆ Responsible for materials preparation for entire class as assigned by the teacher (e.g., copying, cutting, activity preparation)
 Not assigned to do classroom maintenance because of the continuous one-to-one time required by the student with deafblindness 	◆ Responsible for classroom maintenance as assigned by the teacher (e.g., bulletin boards, setting up and cleaning up materials)
 Usually attends regularly scheduled planning and feedback meetings with the teacher and other team members 	◆ Typically does not attend planning meetings
 Participates as an active member of the student's team including attendance at IEP meetings in order to contribute valuable day-to- day knowledge of the student 	◆ Generally does not attend IEP meetings
◆ Not generally assigned to additional school duties because of one-to-one time required by the student	 May be assigned to additional school duties such as lunchroom, bus, playground, etc.
◆ Facilitates the student's connection to others by explaining and modeling the student's specific communication system, acting as a bridge to the world, and creating a safe and supportive environment that encourages successful interactions	◆ Typically is not required to facilitate communication connections between students and others

Alsop, L., Robinson, C., Goehl, K., Lace, J., Belote, M., & Rodriguez-Gil, G. (2007). Interveners in the classroom: Guidelines for teams working with students who are deafblind. Logan, UT: SKI-HI Institute.